

Dr. Emilio Garcia-Ibanez

- Degree in Medicine and doctored: University of Barcelona, 1966
- Director of international program: 96 courses of microsurgery of the ear, 36 courses of endoscopic sinus surgery
- Director of the Otologic Institute
- President of the Foundation of Otology Garcia-Ibanez

Formation postgraduate

- University of Ferrara (Italy), 1966-1967
- University of Oklahoma (USA), 1968
- House Ear Institute, Los Angeles (USA) 1969
- Chief of Section of Otology, Valle Hebron Hospital, Bellvitge Hospital (Barcelona) and Hospital Germans Trias (Badalona) 1970-1998

Areas of specialization:

- Surgical Main activity: Otology and Neurotology
- Staff surgical experience: more than 25,000 Operations Performed (otosclerosis, chronic otitis, vertigo, facial nerve, acoustic neuromas, cochlear implants, hearing totally implanted devices, etc ...)
- First Otoneurosurgery in Spain, 1970
- First single chanel and multichanel Cochlear Implant, 1985-1989
- First totally implanted hearing aid, 2006

Highlights

- Middle Ear Surgery
- Cochlear Implants
- Middle ear implants
- Otoneurosurgery

Acknowledgments

- Certification of Honor of the American Academy ENT
- Personal ear doctor of the King of Spain